Family and Friends,

This year on Giving Tuesday, I'm raising money for the Ulman Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to creating a community of support for young adults impacted by cancer.

One of Ulman's values is to Be Courageous. Courage is a lot easier when you have a community behind you. Will you #BeCourageous and support the young adults Ulman serves with me on #GivingTuesday? No one can face cancer alone. You can make sure they don't have to.

I'm supporting Ulman on December 3rd because [\[insert why you're supporting Ulman\]](#).

[You can give online at \[insert personal fundraising link\]](#).

Every amount helps! If you're unable to donate at this time, I'd appreciate it if you'd share my page on social media or forward this email to people in your network.

Thank you so much!
