DEAR FRIENDS + SUPPORTERS

The Ulman Foundation wants you to join us for our 22nd annual Blue Jeans (& Bow Ties) Ball presented by Atlas Restaurant Group & Monument Sotheby's International Realty on Saturday, February 22, 2020 at The Winslow in downtown Baltimore! Bow Tie Dinner guests will enjoy a restaurant-quality seated dinner, an inspiring program, and a splurge-worthy live auction before the Blue Jeans Ball opens for General Admission guests. This isn't your Grandma's Gala- we will celebrate Ulman's mission, honor the hard work and dedication of those who diligently support it, enjoy delicious food and drinks, and dance the night away!

I am reaching out to ask you to join us as a sponsor and partner as we continue to change the lives of young adults impacted by cancer. 70,000 young adults between 15 and 39 are diagnosed with cancer every year. And for the past twenty one years, Ulman has relentlessly worked to ensure no young adult has to face cancer alone. With your support, Ulman can continue to change lives by providing free, innovative, and impactful programs for young adults, and their loved ones, impacted by cancer.

If you have questions regarding sponsorship of the Blue Jeans (& Bow Ties) Ball, please call Averil Christens-Barry, Corporate Relations & Events Director at 410-964-0202 x117 or email averil@ulmanfoundation.org.

You may also send your commitment form directly to the Ulman office at 1215 E Fort Avenue, Suite 104, Baltimore, MD 21230. For more information about the event, please visit our website - www.ulmanfoundation.org/bluejeansball.

Thank you in advance for your support!

Gratefully,

Daniel Condon, Baltimore Ravens
Pat Seitz, Ernst & Young
Blue Jeans (& Bow Ties) Ball Committee Co-Chairs

EMILY'S STORY

The day I finally found relief was the day I was diagnosed with a brain tumor.

An answer was all I needed after dealing with symptoms for almost 2 years.

My first MRI in October 2018 revealed a mass that had developed since birth.

There was no doubt that the team at Johns Hopkins was the first to come to mind to finally heal the issue that was going on.

In the days leading up to the biopsy, I was excited to have an answer, but at the same time nerves were finally beginning to sink in. After almost 4 hours of surgery the biopsy revealed a Germinoma Tumor that had developed since birth.

A full body scan determined that my appendix needed to be removed before I could start cancer treatment.

All was successful and we could finally start the process of chemo. My chemo lasted 4 weeks and it took a toll on my body, I ended up staying in the hospital a few times. We ended chemo and finally I could continue on the healing process with 4 weeks of radiation.

By the time I started radiation Ulman House had opened! Being able to stay a few minutes from the hospital, rather than making the daily drive back and forth between Baltimore and West Virginia, was very helpful in my healing. Not to mention the friendships I made there.

On March 7th 2019 I completed my last treatment of radiation. The whole family came, the bell was rung, and my story was complete.

I couldn't be happier and so overwhelmed by the support from the team at Johns Hopkins, the amazing new friends from the Ulman House, and most of all the support from my family. No more tumor, no more sickness, and no more hospital stays at Johns Hopkins.

Only complete healing, an amazing story, and hope to share with others.

I never ever thought there was such an amazing foundation that would help me along this journey. Treatments were really starting to wear me out. Especially being almost 2 hours away.

When we found out about the opportunity to stay at Ulman House, I was amazed that such a special place existed.

Even going through treatments every day, the Ulman House made me feel refreshed and cared for in a whole other level.

The people I got to meet made this journey that more special.
